

The primary school will be at full capacity if 250 houses are built (50 extra school places).

The existing pre-school building is old, in poor condition and in need of replacement